

Edition 5
February 7, 2019
2 Adar 1, 5779

READERS RESPOND:

What do you like to do when it snows?

“I like to stay inside and read a book and sit next to the fire.” - Katie Feldstein, First Grade Hebrew teacher

“I like to shovel snow because you can't do that during every season.” -Mark Mitzman, CJDS Business Manager

“I like to make a blanket fort, watch movies, and drink a lot of hot chocolate.” -Ali Greenland, Environmental Education teacher

January and February Birthdays (By: Ma'ayan C.)

*1/9 Marleigh C.,
1/11 Leo B.
1/29 Eva K.
1/31 Naomi R.
2/6 Ruth D.
2/12 David W.
2/14 Will C.
2/18 Julia M.M.*

Tzedakah Club Hosts MLK Jr. and Heschel Celebration

By: Vivian L. and Alin G.

CJDS hosted a celebration to honor Martin Luther King Jr. and Abraham Joshua Heschel. Heschel was a major part of the nation's fight for freedom and equality.

Tzedakah Club members helped with activities such as singing, art projects about social justice, and a study group that discussed how to leave a legacy. Angelo Dunlap, CJDS Music Teacher said, “We are marching so others might treat people the same.”

Students visited three stations in small groups named to represent words of the celebration: respect, kindness, and hope. Mr. Angelo and Yehudit (shown above) taught songs about freedom.

Rabbi Sharon hosts a discussion about how to leave a legacy.

During the discussion group, students answered these questions: When I see something broken, what can I do? As a freedom rider, what would you get on the bus for?

JewishColumbus Core Funding Committee members shared leadership advice with students:

“Don’t be afraid to get involved.”

“Stay curious and keep asking good questions!”

“We learn more from our mistakes than our successes.”

JewishColumbus Core Funding Committee Visits CJDS

By: Lilah S.

The journalism club interviewed committee members and showed a broadcast.

CJDS hosted special visitors last week, and for the first time, the Journalism Club recorded and shared a broadcast showcasing the special aspects of the school. (A link to the video was included in the January 17th Ma Kora in the “Telling Our Story” section.)

Students reported from the tower garden, the pond, about Lego Robotics club, and the special learning and social and emotional resources provided.

After the presentation, students had the opportunity to interview the committee members. They asked them what advice they would give to students about successful leadership. Their answers are included to the left of this article.

The school watched the first CJDS broadcast during Yachad last week.

Tzedaka Club Creates Blessing Bags

By: Dafna S.

As a Jewish Day School, CJDS students do more than just come to school to learn. They also spend time serving and comforting others. There are some people in our communities who do not have access to things like hot water, a warm meal, and shelter.

In Tzedaka Club, students are making bags to help the homeless. The Tzedaka Club made a decision to put together Blessing Bags that include items that could help someone feel warm, clean, and appreciated.

Dovi W. said he likes “...the Blessing Bags because it is good to help the homeless and hopefully it is working.”

Members of the club and others at CJDS keep Blessing Bags in their parents’ cars and give them to others.

Jonah D. feels good about making the bags because people in need will get them and “It will really help.”

If you would like to contribute to the Tzedaka Club Blessing Bags, please bring in the following items: socks (adult), toothpaste, toothbrush, granola bars, hand sanitizer, hand warmers, soap, zip top bags and care notes (short notes expressing care for others).

Each bag includes a “We Care” message made by club members.

Riddles and Jokes section – please submit yours!

Why can't you give Elsa a balloon? Because she'll let it go.

What is a polar bear's favorite cereal? Ice-krispies.

What do you call cheese that's not yours? Nacho cheese!

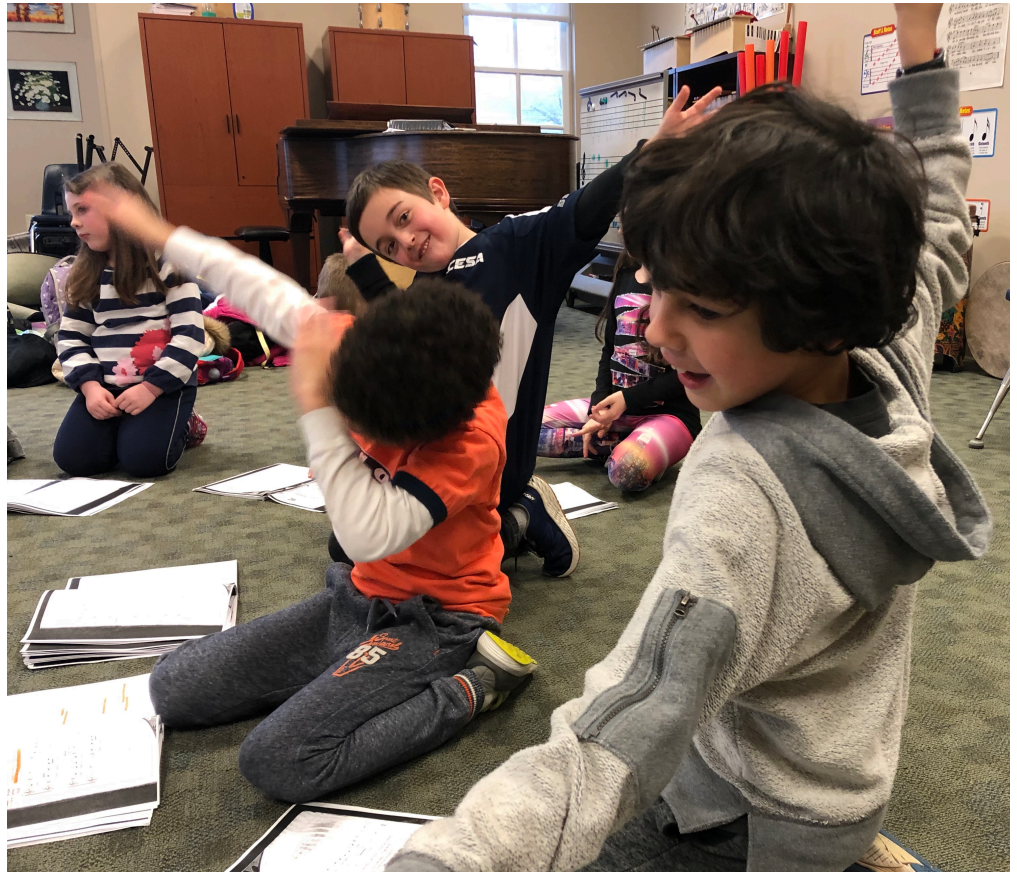

Knock knock! Who's there? Yo-da-ley-he. Yo-da-ley-he who? I didn't know you could yodel!

Why did the date tree cross the road? Because it has so many dates.

If you feel a little scared, where should you hide? In a math book. There is safety in numbers.

Students Prepare for The Jungle Book Play

By: Zeke M.

Yael, Liav, Ari, and Matias show their acting during The Jungle Book practice.

Kids at CJDS have a fun new opportunity. Some are meeting after school on Mondays to learn how to put on a play. The play is The Jungle Book and there will be singing, dancing, and acting. Stay tuned for more details on when this play will happen!

We'd like to feature your book review including the below information (made by Sam F.):

Book Review	NAME: _____
How Many Stars?	_____
	Book: _____
_____	Author: _____
Favorite part	_____
_____	_____
_____	_____
_____	_____
_____	_____

Book Reviews

Name: Dovi W., 4th grade

Stars: 5 out of 5

Book: From the Mixed Up Files of Mrs. Basil E. Frankweiler

By: E. L. Konigsburg

I really enjoyed this book. It was about a brother and sister who run away from home. My favorite part was when the girl, Claudia, kept correcting her brother Jamie's grammar. If you like books with suspense and laughs then you will probably like this book.

Name: Ezra W., Kindergarten

Stars: 5 out of 5

The Wonderful Wizard of Oz

By: L. Frank Baum

Over winter break my mom and I read a book called The Wonderful Wizard of Oz. It is a little different than the movie – there are mice, a magic cap, and Dorothy's slippers are silver instead of red. My favorite part was when Dorothy killed the wicked witch. I think you should read this book.

Caption for the comic (written by Ari M.F.):

The Latkes are a potato latke family, kind of like your family and mine. Grandpa is silly and the dog is always in the mix. Lex is the teen brother and his vocabulary is limited to, "I don't care."

Have a Ha-ha-ha-happy school year!

This comic was adapted from the book, Meet the Latkes by Alan Silberberg.

Please submit your comic, drawing, joke, or riddle.

Staff members: (L-R)

- Ma'ayan C.
- Ruthie M.
- Lilah S.
- Vivian L.
- Zeke M.
- Alin G.
- Ruth D.
- Dafna S.
- Rony A.

We are always looking for more reporters, writers, photographers, and helpers. Journalism Club meets once a week, on Thursdays, during recess.

Comics Corner: The Crazy Latkes by Ari M.F., 1st grade

CJDS Newspaper Staff

Thank you to our readers and supporters. We are thinking about also doing a regular broadcast. If you would like to see a short CJDS newscast once a month, please let one of the Chronicles staff members know. Shalom!